

MENTAL HEALTH WORKER/PSYCHIATRIC AIDE TUITION
--

Course Description:

The Mental Health worker works closely with patients, talking with them, encouraging their participation in games and other recreational activities and generally giving them the understanding and kindness that are so important to their progress toward recovery. Also, they care for the mentally ill, disable, or sick people confined to hospitals, mental facility and residential care facilities.

The program provides intense training in both theory and the practical application for the mental health worker/psychiatric aide in a clinical setting. Students will learn basic lifesaving methods (CPR), and how to restrain clients, help with bathing, dressing, eating, escort to and from wards or clinics and assist the nurse with vital signs.
